

MEET ASHLEY WOLFF

“Every artist needs to know the four P words: Passion. Practice. Patience. Perseverance. ‘Perfect’ is never one of the P words for artists.”

Ashley is the illustrator, and in many cases, the author, of more than 60 award-winning children’s books. She is also “Treehouse Adjunct Staff” and has served six residencies at Treehouse where she has visited schools, taught workshops for families, and painted with staff. Her artwork is part of the Treehouse “Old MacDonald’s Woodshop” exhibit, the outside of the “Big Red Barn,” the south Utah Map mural wall, and throughout the beautiful “Walk in the Woods” exhibit, based on her “Baby Bear” book series. And Ashley is one of our “Heroes,” too, with her own case in the “Be the Hero of Your Own Story” exhibit. Ashley graduated from Rhode Island School of Design, and worked first at a newspaper, and then began her book career. She has two grown-up sons and lives with her dog Rufus in Lake Dunmore, Vermont.
